

Read, Write, Revise! Informational Page

Welcome to Read, Write, Revise! This is a year-long project designed to provide you with choice, flexibility, and rigor. Your teacher will provide personalized feedback on all of your writing in order to help you grow this year and support you in achieving your maximum potential in reading and writing. If needs or concerns arise at any point, please communicate that to your teacher immediately so that they can provide necessary support. Please refer to this sheet throughout the year to guide your reading choices and writing.

Each quarter (9 weeks), you will:

- Earn 60+ total points
 - Get credit for the points you earn for completed categories up to 60 points per quarter.
- Complete new categories (do not repeat)
- Revise as many times as necessary to earn points
 - Your teacher will not award points until all revisions are complete and your writing meets expected standards
 - No partial credit will be given in any category.
- Have the opportunity to check out new books after completing a first draft response to the previous category

Each written response will:

- Completely answer the prompt
- Cite evidence from the text
- Follow standard conventions of grammar and spelling
- Be organized in a logical text structure

You should:

- Choose appropriate texts
 - Meets your reading level
 - Appropriate length
 - Fits the category
- Pace yourself
 - Use class time wisely
 - Make some time at home to devote to reading and/or writing
 - Don't procrastinate! (It won't end well for you.)
- Celebrate your growth and success!
- HAVE FUN! READ WHAT YOU LOVE!

We have read and discussed the requirements for the Read, Write, Revise project. We have committed to a plan for success.
